“ To Brenda's family: May God bless and keep you. I hate I missed the last few years at a distance from Brenda. We used to be tighter than knots, skipping school and going up to Palmer Park. Those were the good ole days. Please hold onto your loved ones for you never know when you may give or receive that last kind word or touch. I love you Brenda and miss you greatly. My dear friend...gone too soon.

“ Dear Brenda,
You will be greatly missed. When I think of you I see your smile and hear your laughing voice. I was always impressed with your strength and determination. You were truly a force of nature. And like nature doesn't leave but just changes, I know you are not gone, but changed. Your bright spirit and energy will always surround those you loved. Rest in peace my friend.##imported-begin##Denise Hill##imported-end##

“ Jim and family,
Our hearts break for you during this sad time. This world has lost one hell of a person. She was a ray of sunshine where ever she was. One can only hope to have someone so special in their lives even if it was for a short time. Cherish those memories and keep them close in your heart. Sending a hug from our hearts to yours.##imported-begin##Barb and Steve Pillsbury##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the Baker Family. To suffer such a loss is hard, especially when they person was as young as Brenda. My hope for your family is to cherish your memories of her and hold fast to the promises God's kingdom will bring for all of obeident mankind. Isaiah 25:8 points to a time when God will 'swallow up death forever'. One of our greatest enemies will be gone.##imported-begin##Doniesa##imported-end##
