“ Dear Milligan Family, We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Psalms 23:1-3 May the Lord God give you and your family comfort during this time of loss. No words can express the sorrow that we feel as this time. We Love You Lorri and Stew like second Parents and you have been so amazing to me during my time of need. I have many fond memories of Brian as a Child of camping trips. Carefree and fun. Just as I picture heaven to be, may God hold him in his hands and and give him that peace. We are praying for all of you at this time. Love to you all. Cheryl Warburton and Family!

“ With sadness in my heart I leave this message for the family of Brian. I'm so very sorry for your loss. We were co-workers at SHAP. He always had a smile to share and a kind word to say. He will be missed. Although Brian was called home by our Father God too soon, God promised safe passage to a life of eternal glory. He's a smiling angel, who's spirit is soaring through the heavens keeping a watchful eye over you. May you find peace and comfort with the beautiful memories shared until you meet again. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time.

“ There are so many memories that come flooding in with the news of Brian's premature departure from us. Junior high, high school, college and the after college years. A sharp wit, sarcastic retorts, political banter, card games, parties, friends hanging out, etc. I will not say that I will miss all of these things (although I will), but rather I will remember him for these things and thus keep his memory alive. He touched many lives in ways that he may not have been aware of. I will remember his loyalty to his friends, even when that loyalty meant doing the hard things. He was a good man. Although I have not seen or spoken to him in years, it feels as if it was only yesterday... You will be missed Brian, but not forgotten.

“ It is incredibly difficult to grasp this reality. It seems impossible. Though its been many years since I have talked or seen him, he was my best friend during those early formative years. The sweetest guy. Everyone knows how easy he was to get along with. He had that personality that would just draw you in. Whether we were riding bikes, talking about girls or playing with his cutting edge computer in his old house on Evergreen across from the Violet School playground, he was so easy to laugh with. And even though it seems like forever since I have even heard his voice, the depth and pain of my profound heartbreak feels the same as if I just said hello to him this morning. God bless Brian Milligan. God bless his family and friends. I wish you all the strength in the world to cope with this horrible loss.

“ Brian was my brother's (Joe Kowalski) friend, not really mine, but he was such a great guy that I counted him as my friend by proxy. I was not always easy to get along with in high school, often by my own choice. However, Brian was always nice to me no matter what stupid thing I did, wore, listened to, etc.. His sunny smile (or cockeyed grin?) always made me feel better. I remember him fondly. Since I heard this sad news he and his family have been on my mind and in my prayers. Peace.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of my dear old friend Brian Milligan. Some of the best times of my life were spent with Brian. Even though I haven't seen Brian much over the last couple of years as we got busier with families, he has always been one of my best friends. Brian had a way of using sarcasm mixed with humor that would make me double over in laughter. To his family, I am so sorry for your loss of this great man. You and Brian are in my prayers.

I want to express my sincere condolences to "Brian's" family and friends. The loss of a loved one brings much pain and grief. At such times we need to go to God's word the Holy Bible for comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). That comfort comes from knowing the truth about death. The Bible teaches us that our Loving Heavenly Father yearns to bring back to life our dead loved ones, by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in true peace and happiness in the very near future. Please read (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:11,29) Again my deepest sympathy to you.
