“ It was such a privilege to finally meet your mom and talk with her. I loved what us kids always called her "Detroit accent" and her stories. For my mother to have maintained a friendship with her after leaving Detroit in the mid 1950s says it all. Over 75 years. Your mom was a special person and I am so glad (as I'm sure my mom was) to have met. Hopefully they're catching up on things in a beautiful place.

“ Our deepest condolences to all of you. Two of my favorite memories of Camille are whenever she would visit Eric and Melissa and I'd yell over "Did you bring your bathing suit?" (we have a pool), she'd always laugh and say next time. And then every time she'd call Melissa when Melissa and I were scrapbooking she's always say tell Amy I said hi. We'll miss you. - Love the Manchesters
