“ Carl was a good friend, we were very close when we both worked at Fred Wolf’s Eastland Bowl. We had lots of fun in those days, if Carl had a sponsor he would have been on TV bowling, Carl was the smoothest bowler I have ever seen and could adapt to any condition the lanes could set up. His parents were always nice to us when visited their home in East Detroit or the cottage on Harson’s Island. Very sad to hear of his passing as Dave Barc and I were hoping to bowl with him again or just get together and talk old times. Our Condolences to the Caloia Family, Rest in Peace good friend!
