Tribute Wall

“ It is hard to believe it has been more than 5 years since you left us. I live you memory every day and try to give tribute to your life and the lessons you taught me. I miss you Dad. More than you'll ever know. It is so hard to know that I can't pick up the phone to call. Memories hit or a unique circumstance does and I want to call for your advice. The connection isn't there to heaven. I miss you so much. It has been very hard. Lonely. You were the glue that kept the family together. There is no family anymore.

Brian took what he could. No response or love to Mom. I'm there as long as I can. I miss you. I will keep my promises to you. Thank you for giving me the great lessons in life. I've never missed anyone more. It has been a hard 5 years.

“ Although I have not seen Carl in many years since I left Michigan, he was a great friend in our youth. Carl, my brother Dave and myself took a car trip around Lake Michigan in 1958, our first travel adventure. We slept under the then new Mackinac Bridge and had many wonderful times. Carl and I worked together at SS Kresge as stockmen and for a few years he was an everyday visitor at my parents home. Life separated us but I have never forgotten those good times. Carl and his black 1957 Plymouth Savoy pulling up in front of the house...it was like yesterday

“ Carl and I always debated on the year D B Copper jumped from the airplane with the money. Both of us were usually wrong but we would argue like hell to convince the other we were right. Just good fun that I will miss. Donald Vermeulen

“ Dear family, I am sorry about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Carlton James Witkowski. Releasing and expressing grief is not always easy; especially, when you have to seem strong for other family members. Job and many others find that talking about your feelings to a “true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically can bring a measure of relief. (Proverbs 17:17) And if the listener is another bereaved person you may be able to glean some practical suggestions on how you can cope. Never keep things bottle in. Please find comfort in these additional bible scriptures Luke 23:43 and John 5:28, 29.

“ I worked with Carl at Engineering Staff in the Eighties. He was a talented, trusted, friendly, and reliable colleague and I know how much his loss will affect those who knew and loved him more intimately. My deep condolences.

Mr. Hydar, Thank you for remembering my Dad. I have such good memories of hockey, you, your wife (Mrs. Dee Hydar), Carol, Mark and Jeff. Life isn't fair. Thanks for remembering my Dad. It took a few years to respond. I hope you have many grandchildren and are very happy. Mrs. Dee always cared for her children too. I miss those hockey days.
