“ Dear John, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Carol A. Ebenhoeh. I see that your wife was a religious person; therefore, I know you can take comfort from what the bible says, “Blessed be . . . the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. That comfort is priceless.

“ Our condolences to John and family. Carol was a good friend. Carol thank you for being a good life-long friend to Teresa. I know how devastated she is with your passing. Teresa and I are so glad that the three of us went up to the cottage and just enjoyed spending time together. We have a lot of fond memories and will miss you.

“ Carol will be missed. We had many laughs at the St. Malachy Flea Market while sorting out items. We would see something and then start to remember and tell childhood stories. We would see something and it would start a round of jokes. Carol was fun to work with and so willing to lend a hand where needed. Hank and the Flea Market Staff
