*There are so many childhood memory's of Carol and my cousins as our family's lived across the street from each other for many years on the Northeast side of Detroit. My Mom (Eleanor) and Carol's Mom (Aunt Margaret) were sisters. My older sister (also Carol) and Carol were together quite a lot hanging out and spending time together. I have many memory's of my other (Vollmer) cousins also as Pete one day jumped over the fence to come to my aid as 3-4 guys wanted to gang up on me on my way home from school...when Pete came into the scene...wow did they scatter :) One of the most precious memory's I have of Carol is when she and my sister Carol were at our house at Easter time (probably about 12-13 years old). They were watching the Easter story of Jesus Christ called "King of Kings" with Jeffery Hunter portraying Jesus...I came out of a back room and there at our small 14" TV were both Carol's with tears and sobs coming from them as they were watching the crucifixion of Jesus Christ...they were both so emotionally torn up at what Jesus Christ did for everyone who will believe in Him. (John 3:16) I looked at them and said "Whats wrong...this is only a movie." They both (while sobbing) said yes Denny...this is a movie ...but it really happened to Jesus Christ",,, that has been... and will be a pictured memory I will not forget.
Tom...Joseph...Cherri...Suzanne...Jennifer...you are in my / our prayers that Gods Grace and Peace and Comfort will surround all of you as you mourn Carol / Mom...a Scripture (of many) that the Lord has given me at Debbie's (wife) passing is to hold onto and Think of all the many good...true...praiseworthy...loving...honest...joyful things in the life spent together (Philippians 4:8)... Also the beauty of the promise of Jesus Christ in (John 14:1-6)*

I was very sad to hear of the loss of Carol. Please accept my sincerest sympathy during this difficult time. I will always remember Carol and the fun conversations about her new shoes and jewelry when she would come into the office.

I am very sorry to hear of the loss of Mrs. Nosakowski. I offer my prayers and sincere condolences to Mr. Nosakowski, their four (4) children, the grandchildren and all who were touched by her life. Her legacy and memory will live on in those whose lives she touched. To my good friend, Jennifer (her daughter), you know I love you and are here for you. You are in my heart and prayers during this difficult time. "Blessed are those who mourn; for they will be comforted." Matthew 5:4
