“ My Grandma was a beautiful woman inside and out. We always bonded over our “left-handedness” and being forgetful and clumsy at times. My Grandma loved to laugh and she enjoyed the simple pleasures in life, always looking for the beauty in things. Some of my favorite memories are fishing on her pond and seeing the horses at her farm, going on our annual Christmas shopping trips together, passing out candy on Halloween and random lunch dates. She loved her church, red hat club and was always down for an adventure and a glass of wine. She loved taking pictures and was always so extremely proud of her family. I am so grateful for the time I had with her and the time she spent with my kids. She was kind to everyone she met and one of the sweetest you’ll ever meet. She will be deeply missed.

Carol was such a sweet, gentle quiet lady. I'll miss spending holiday dinners with her and catching up on our latest adventures. Love you Carol “ Carol was such a sweet person with a touch of sass that always had us laughing. She was always welcoming. Back in the day, we would ride our snowmobiles over on snowy nights surprising her and Norm with a visit. In minutes, she would whip up some hot cocoa and share whatever chocolate she had on hand. Great conversations sharing fun memories about my Dad and Norm at Ford Motor Co. Her homeade easy fudge was always the best. You will be missed Carol!

“ Carol was my beloved sister. I will miss her. She was a great sister to me and my family. We know Carol didn't want to linger once it was determined all had been done for her. I think of her often now with a smile knowing she is in a better place and no longer in pain. I love you sweetheart.
