“ Farewell to my lovely cousin.....I met Carol on three occasions....once,when as a teenager, she and her Mum came to Ireland.... when my wife Marie and I visited Aunt May, Uncle Gene and the extended family in 1993 and some years later on a second trip to Michigan.
Carol was such a kind and friendly girl and we are deeply saddened at her untimely passing. We have fond and treasured memories of our times together. Our loss is Heaven's gain.
God bless you,Carol

“ Heaven has added an angel. Time will heal the sadness and be replaced with happy memories. Christmas visits were so special with laughter and gifts that I will treasure forever. The emails were filled with humor and lovely deco. Peace be with you. Love, Dianne

“ I met Carol in 5th grade as Campfire girls and became the best of friends. We were always together. We spent the night at each other’s house. She came on vacation with my dad, brother and I. We danced and sang in my bedroom and basement. We went to double roller skating sessions every Sunday for a few yrs. Went to Unit Secretary co- op together. Graduated from high school together. She was my other half for years. We both got married and lost track for a while until Facebook came about. Then we began doing things together. We spent so much time together 2 yrs ago till I moved to Florida and I was so looking forward for her to come visit. She was the most generous person ever. Loved animals so much. Had the sweetest heart. I will miss her dearly. I love you Carol you will never be forgotten my sweet dear friend.

Carol, I still can't believe you have left us. GOD must have needed another beautiful Angel. I met you 37 years ago, and instantly became your friend. I will always remember the silly messages we used to exchange, but most of all.....I lost a loving, caring friend. RIP Carol, you will always be in my prayers.

“ Carol was my baby sister in every sense of the word. We tried to be there for each other through good times and bad. I will miss her smile most of all. She loved to have dinner at our house with her nieces Sam & Alex. She felt at home. God must of needed her in heaven, because she died way to soon.

Bunny, Oh how I miss you! I walk around my home and there is a pillow here, a soft blanket there, a gift card on my nightstand. I knew you since we were 7 years old. You were often the brightest light in my day - and the kindest little woman I've ever known. Lots of great memories- Tongo, Tongo! Love you forever.
