“Carole, a dear friend and neighbor for almost 40 years. I miss you so much already. Whenever I pass your house I will think of you and Don and your kids. Like all the other original neighbors who have died or moved away, their houses are always referred to by their last names, the Yustick house holds lots of memories. We (Tom and I) remember camping trips, conversations about our families and life in general. Carole, you and I were also part of a very active Guild at St. Louise church for a number of years. Our hearts are filled with sorrow for the Yustick and Seymour families who are left grieving. Remember all the good times and share the stories with your children. Love to you all, Tom and Jean Close.

“*We will miss Carole, a good friend and neighbor. We will miss seeing her walking Bailey and our conversations outside doing yard work. We will miss seeing all her Christmas decorations inside and the chocolate dipped pretzels she made with Lyn. Don and Carole were both the type of neighbors you hope to always have. We were blessed to have them for our neighbors the past 11 years. Love to all the Yusticks and Seymours.
