“ To the Skorupski Family,
On behalf of the Cwiklinski family, please accept our sincere condolences in the passing of your mom. She was a lovely lady, who always had a smile for others. Our mom spoke fondly of the friendship they shared and maintained long after the St. Raymond years. “ Dear Skorupski family: Your mom was a vibrant, fun-loving, and talented woman. Both my mom (Millie) and I knew her for many years through the St. Raymond Choir Auxiliary. Carole also hemmed and made some of the altar cloths for the church when she was in the Quilters group. She will be missed. Pat & Millie Connor##imported-begin##Pat & Millie Connor##imported-end##

“ Dearest Skorupski Family

I see Carole's smile and remember the great times we've shared over forty years! "Mrs. Skoupski" was a family-based woman with great love for her children/grandchildren.

I shall miss most the way Nibby could tease her and get a "rise" out of Carole either in disbelief or frustation. She was a lot of fun.

My love to all of you. May her memory be eternal and all of you enjoy the peace of knowing you served and honored her well. Much love--Jamie##imported-begin##Jamie Spriet##imported-end##
