“ Carol was a very dear friend of my mother, Shirley Roose. Although my mom had Alzheimer's, before that she often spoke of your mother and shared stories of all of the ladies from St. Therese. Carol and my mother are now together with our Lord Jesus.

Thinking of you and your family during this difficult time.

“ Carol was a dear friend. She has touched so many lives with her thoughtfulness.

She was always ready to become involved where ever she was needed. She was a very active member of St. Therese parish. She started the funeral luncheons.

She was a regular at morning mass where she set us readings and intentions. She also was a member of Rambling Roses where she participated in the April birthdays at Madonna Villa. She and I also set up the hospitality breakfasts after 8:00 mass. Our group of four, Dotty Vanslebrouck, Marilyn Mooney, and I met the last Monday of each month for nine years. At these meetings we discussed our faith. These discussions really gave us each a look into our personal lives. We always said what was discussed at these get-togethers stayed there.

She will truly be missed by all who knew her.

“ This is a poem that Carol's sister Rose copied in her own hand writing for safe keeping:

MY SISTER

*She knows just where I dream to go, remembers where I've been.
Accepts me just the way I am, and treats me like a friend.
She's someone who is there for me, no matter what or when.
And every time I'm with her, it's like coming home again.*

*Welcome Home, Aunt Carol
Peace to all the Grassos and Zujkowskis*
