“ Hi John and Ron, I read in the death notices that you lost your dear mother on October 28; how blessed you were to have to her 96th year.

I see that you have 6 children between you; it must be about 50 years since I served as usher at you wedding, John. I still live in the same house in Grosse Pointe that I lived in when my mother and aunt were customers of Carols Beauty Shop.

Best wishes,

“ Dear Johnnie and Ronnie and the entire Krakowski Family, I have SUCH fond memories of Auntie Carol and Uncle John growing up. I loved going to Auntie Carol's beauty shop and watching her "work her magic" on the hair of all the ladies who came faithfully. I even got my hair done there too. I can hear her laugh still. What a beautiful lady inside and out. Please feel the love of our family to you as you celebrate her life. We will keep you all in our prayers.

God Bless You All,

The Leslie Family (Sue, Marty, Amy, Justin, Lauren, Jim, Donna) and Jeanne
