“ The pleasure was mine to meet Carolyn. Our dear Lord gave each of us our special time with Carolyn. Some knew her as a loving family member, friend or volunteer. I appreciated the times when she spent her personal time, on several occasions, stuffing church bulletins with a flyer to market St. Mary's Catholic Church Young Ladies event. The time I cherish most is growing closer to Carolyn in her final weeks through the power of prayer. I will continue to remember Carolyn in my prayers and during Holy Mass. Prayers to the Bissett family. PAX (Peace) Deborah Majeski

“ Volunteering for St. Mary's church I've had the pleasure of getting to know Carolyn. Chatting with her and Mama Bissett while they waited for Anna's lunch break to share the meal together. Having her join our church family at hospitality events, helping us on off days to organize items in the rectory. What I'll miss the most is her love of Christ and her family.

“ Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! The strife is o'er, the battle done; the victory of life is won; the song of triumph has begun. Alleluia! The powers of death have done their worst, but Christ their legions has dispersed. Let shouts of holy joy outburst. Alleluia! The three sad days are quickly sped; he rises glorious from the dead. All glory to our risen Head. Alleluia! He closed the yawning gates of hell; the bars from heaven's high portals fell. Let hymns of praise his triumph tell. Alleluia! Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee, from death's dread sting thy servants free, that we may live and sing to thee. Alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

“ When I got sick five years ago, Carolyn sent me pictures of beautiful pictures Mrs. Bissett took as they drove down the river. Carolyn is one of the people that has helped me carry this cross. She taught my boys about the true meaning of love. I teme bet all the special events we had during the years I taught Religious Education. Carolyn showed me how to have faith, and how important it was. I will miss her, yet I know I will see her again. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Carolyn, while I didn't get a chance to be in your life for a long time, I'm just blessed I was able to be a part of it at all. You definitely were an angel that walked Earth, and I have no doubt the angels in Heaven rejoiced upon your arrival. I'm beyond grateful for your friendship, and for the times you would send me Facebook messages just out of the blue to tell me you love me. You definitely made an impact on my life regardless of the amount of time I was able to have you be a part of it. Thank you, for everything. I love you too, and I really hope you know that.

“ I can't even begin to express how much Carolyn means to me. God blessed me with the best sister I could have ever hoped for. Not only was she my Godmother, she was also my daughter's Godmother and Sponsor. Carolyn went out of her way to make every holiday special, to make everyone feel loved, and would do anything for anyone. I love you sis, say hi to Dad for me.
