

Carolyn Jean Denys

March 7, 1933 - February 9, 2021

Carolyn "Jean" Denys born 3-7-33 in Detroit and passed peacefully 2-10-21. Survived by her son's Jim (Mary) Denys, Ken (Janice) Denys. Grandchildren Rebecca Chapa, Eric Denys, Chad Denys, and Great Grandchildren. Preceded in death by her son Robert Denys. She was an Aunt to Dennis Wiethoff, Brian MacDonald and Kelly MacDonald and a Great Aunt to many nieces and nephews. She enjoyed her many lifelong friends whom she cherished. Jean loved visiting and supporting the Capuchin Monastery in Detroit. She was an even bigger supporter of the Caesars Casino in Windsor, but we can probably keep this to ourselves.

“ The Wiethoff children have many great memories growing up with our Great Aunt Jean! Whether it was visiting her in Detroit, a family get together at our grandparent's in St. Helens, a summer retreat to the Brock's fishing cabins in the UP or even sharing a holiday meal at Jim and Mary's all the way down in Houston, TX, we were blessed to have had an Aunt like Jean in our lives and will cherish the memories she helped create for years to come! We love and miss you Aunt Jean! Dustin Wiethoff

“ I am saddened at the passing of my Godmother, Aunt Jean. She was a steady pillar in the MacDonald family! Always there for her sons and at the same time made room for me. Many days were spent with my 3 cousins Bob, Jim & Ken. I'll never forget a summer vacation spent in New Baltimore on Lake St. Clair, we were a band of brothers. The following year we went to Hessel in the U.P. of Michigan. Our grandparents favorite fishing village on Lake Huron. Jean was always about making memories. To be sure, we will always remember her! May She Rest in Peace! Dennis Wiethoff Family
