“ We are so sorry your mom passed away. She was such a gentle, kind and caring person. Our whole family always enjoyed the great parties she and your dad had during the holidays. My sons always made sure they went to Ed and Carolyn's house because it was such a great time. Your mother was very special to them and to Walt and I as well. She was loved and will be missed. Your cousin, Dianne Olejniczak

I think I spent most of my high school years over at their house. We were always enjoying family meals, spending time with her and Ed's family, and we were always greeted with a smile. She was a wonderful woman and will be missed. My condolences to your entire family.
