“ I remember when Carol and Bob where living in their first apartment and it was Pam's baptism I stayed to help with the dinner while everyone else was at church. Carol had a ham in the oven and when we opened the oven door the ham rolled out onto the floor and just kept on going. We looked at each other and picked it up put it back in the oven and never said a word about it. But had a good laugh together. That is what family does we stick together. I do miss talking to you. Love Lorraine
