“ First, let me say, I didn't know Carolyn Ann Woods but I do know how it feels to lose a love one in death. You never forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics and gatherings of them. There is hope of seeing our love ones again. At Isaiah 26:19 says, " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news. Wouldn't you say. Please read it in your Bible. Laurie.

“ I remember my very first Christmas at your home Carol, it was Christmas 1996 and it was the best Christmas I had in a. Dry long time. You and I both shared our passion for Christmas and that memory will never leave me. I also met Bob & Danielle for the very first time also. That was the year you bought me the dark wine leisure suit with the 6 inch cuffs and the satin flowers. It had a high neck and this zipper button thingy! And Danielle helped you pick it. I loved your quirky sense of humor, your thoughtful list for gift giving. That was also the first year I was introduced to your hash brown casserole and your sausage & sausage and egg casserole. That Christmas breakfast was amazing. The laughter, the fun, the photographs, the great food and of course the family time. Thank you for sharing your love, your home, your heart and s lifetime of loving laughter and joyful memories. You will be missed Carol Ann Woods (my second mum) yes you surely will be missed. Your loving grandsons Eryth and Ian Woods miss you dearly and will always love their grandma. I will miss you more than you could ever know, but now you are soaring above with our Heavenly Father and all his special angels. Rest In Peace Perfect Peace Carol and continue to watch over us all with your beautiful smile, your peaceful spirit and your endearing hum. I can still hear your beguiling hum now, and I can look up and see your captivating smile. Until we meet again Carol Ann (Reuter) Woods. Share your loving heart and Angelic voice with God's Divine & Hallowed Choir. 🙏❤️😭😭😭😭😭😭

“ Bob, Danielle, Mike, Elsie and Family, we were shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of your mother! Whenever I saw her she wore a smile and loved being around people! She can now Rest In Peace knowing she was loved and cherished. I can without a doubt say one of her biggest contributions to the world was to raise two strong, confident and dedicated men, she will be missed by many! RIP

Carol and I went to school from kindergarten (Koss) through 12th grade (Madison High). We saw each other occasionally over the years but really reconnected on the committee planning for our 50th high school reunion. Carol shared her beautiful smile and generous support with all of us over the next years. She is greatly appreciated and loved for her selfless support and good cheer even over her daily struggles. What a special person, who will be sorely missed by us and so many. But now she has left this earthly toil and joined the heavenly choir.

We love you Carol,

Jim and Joyce and all your MHS friends.
