

Caryl Mae Hall

July 21, 1935 - February 2, 2025

Caryl Mae Hall (née Zahrte), went home to be with the Lord on February 2, 2025, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was born to Arnold E. and Evelyn W. (née Sell) Zahrte on July 21, 1935 in LaGrange, Wisconsin. She grew up helping her family on the farm and graduated from Tomah High School in 1953.

She met the love of her life Wayne "Jim" Hall when he was stationed in the Army at Fort McCoy, WI. They were wed September 5, 1953 in Ridgeville, WI and were married for 66 years. They moved to Warren, MI where they bought a house and raised their family. She worked for Automotive Molding until her retirement in 1997.

She enjoyed traveling with her husband and made it to all of the United States except for Alaska. She enjoyed her family, baking, search word puzzles, Court TV, flowers, craft shows, collecting things and feeding her squirrels. She will be missed by those who knew and loved her.

Left behind to cherish her memory are her children, Valerie Makurat, Cheryl (Larry Utley) Hall of MI; Vanessa Owens of Texas; 5 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren; sisters Marion (John) Schaller of WI, Janice (Edward Neaves) Burgdorf of MI; sister-in-law Ruth Zahrte of WI; in-laws Gene and Liz Hall of MI; special friends Dana Simmons; and her fur baby, Bella.

Predeceased by her husband, Wayne (2019), 2 granddaughters, sister Joanne Guy, brother Darwin Zahrte, and son-in-law Robert Makurat.

As requested by Caryl, cremation arrangements were taken care of through Wasik Funeral Home. Caryl will be laid to rest at a private interment at Cadillac Memorial Gardens East Cemetery in Clinton Township, MI.
