“ Dear Roxanne,
My mom read about your Dad and contacted me. I'm so sorry. I remember he loved you very much and was very protective of you and Monica. Wow, ten grandchildren! That's awesome. I have wondered about you over the years and always remember how much I treasured your friendship. You were a great friend. I love and miss you. It's too bad we lost touch in high school. I live out of state but would love to hear from you someday.. I'm on facebook too. I know you are grieving now, and I am so sorry for your loss. Please give Monica my love too and pass on a hug to her from me. Wish I could be there to hug you now.
Love Always Your Friend,, Sue (Jones) Routledge

“ My Brother Greg and Family,

My Prayers and Hugs are with you as you Celebrate the Home Going for Your Dad (Mr. Casimir May).

*There's a garden in every heart,
Where new dreams grow and hope blossoms. Where grace blooms and Jesus is there, hearing every prayer.
May Jesus be so very close to you today and always.*

“ Our condolences to Cass's family.
Cass was always present at church festivals and especially at St Hyacinth for Sunday Mass. It was not surprising to meet Cass at either of the two places or a restaurant or super market. If you had met Cass in the past, he was sure to recognize and acknowledge you.
Always friendly and cheerful, he will be missed.

“ Dear kind and caring man - I married his friend, Louie Borczak and knew Cass from working at Fisher Body for 15+ years. He was a gentleman - a kind and good man who was a complete credit to himself and all he represented. I am not well or I would be there to say goodbye in person. I know God welcomes you with open arms Cass, dear man. Your family is so blessed to have had you as their head.

“ I am very sorry to hear of his passing. I have many memories of Cass way back from the St. Stanislaus days. He will be missed. and as the late Msgr Borkowicz used to say at funerals " Beloved of God and beloved of men foe his memory shall remain in benediction". Rest in peace Cass.##imported-begin##Stephen Bukowski##imported-end##
