“ Catherine will be remembered as truly the sweetest, unassuming, loving, caring, and shining heartbeat I've ever known. There is no answer to my question: Why Catherine? Mom Theresa and Dad Joe raised a very good girl. She worked hard, loved family, and never complained about her awful disease. We all lost an important person. God bless her soul. God bless her family.

“ I never met Cathy in person. Yet, through Brian’s eyes, I could feel the love she shared. She gave strength to others, even when her body was weak. I spoke to Brian everyday at work and learned about her beautiful heart. Brian, Cathy will always be with you-in the memories you carry, deep in your soul. You both raised an amazing son and will continue to grow those memories of by sharing her stories. To all of Cathy’s family—you are all so lucky to have played an important role in her life. I may have never met Cathy, but I will cherish how her life has make an impact on mine. ❤️—Jasmine Hussain

“ Cathy really impressed me with her thoughtfulness when she and Brian were getting married and she called me in California and asked if she could assist me in coming to her wedding by borrowing her relative's wheelchair. As a disabled aunt who needs walker/wheelchair to get around I was awed at this young bride's (whom I'd never even met) awareness of my potential needs.
