“ Amy, Always remember the memories you made will last your lifetime. Those memories will bring tears to smiles during your toughest days. Thank you for sharing your mother's strength with the rest of us, that showed the strength in you as well. May she rest peacefully now, but remember..she will always be near. My prayers are with you and your loved ones.

“ Cathy was one of the sweetest people. Even with everything she was going through she reached out to me with words of kindness when I had a breast cancer scare. God has taken her home but she will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very difficult time.

“ Cathy - you and Kurt are one of the best neighbors anyone could ask for. Such a great loss at this time of year. Kurt and kids please just keep her in your heart as she will always be there, watching over all of you by making sure you all go down the right path in life. Be strong and carry on her legacy... Your next door neighbor, Therese Rose and Larry Coburn

“ Over the years we built many memories. My favorite, was when you and Sarah did the walk, and I was rooting along with mom and mike. She was so proud of you guys. And when she laughed her butt off when we did our French project and had Sarah lift up our lines we had written down, so we wouldn't forget our lines but we still failed miserably. She thought it was hilarious.

She touched the lives of all that were blessed to know her, with her strength and unconditional love.

Love you guys,

Tiffany.

“ My favorite memory of Cathy was in the back yard when me, Packy Lang and John were swimming (1974). Mrs. O'Brien was sitting on the patio with Cathy making sure we were safe like she always did. This particular day we absolutely cracked up Cathy and Mrs. O'Brien. The three of us took turns standing on the very top of the ladder, with our fingers making peace signs, doing impersonations of Richard Nixon prior to jumping in the pool. "I am not a crook". They thought that was the funniest thing. I will never forget watching those two laugh when I would come up from under water. Where does the time go? You left us too early Cathy. My thoughts and prayers to the entire O'Brien and Kreiter families.

“ Amy, Sarah, and Mike,

Your mother was an amazing soul. I was so happy to have known her and to have become your family friend over the last few years. I always felt welcomed by your Mom and family and I know she is definitely in better place. I love you all and will remember her always.

Love,
