“ A lot of my memories as a child growing up on sugarbush had Cecil in them. Always doing for others. Thought Cecil was coolest guy coming over with his backhoe to move dirt or grade driveway for us. White Birch Lakes!! ATV's, big trucks. He was a man's man. RIP Cecil. You definitely left a legacy for yourself sir. Thank you for being you

“ Cecil was the best neighbor and friend you could ask for . Always willing to help out with anything going on in the neighborhood. Cecil would come over and kick the ball for my dog Petey. He will be missed by many. .

He knew he was rich in these things and the time doesn't with all of you were honestly treasured. It fills my heart with joy to experience the outpouring love and support from you. Thank you for being so awesome.
