“ I met Chuck at the Silver Spur Saloon. He quickly became a friend. Every time I walked in the door, Chuck had a smile, handshake, and a new joke to tell. We would often laugh at those jokes until we were crying. He made me dance with him to get me to two-step correctly. That sure was a quick lesson. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sandy and all of Chuck's family. God Bless You! Curt and Lauri Bussell

“ My dad sold hay to Chuck & Sandy for many years. I remember as a teenage kid being a bit intimidated by Chuck but quickly found out he had a very kind/gentle heart. It was always a breath of fresh air when Chuck came pulling into the field with his tractor on a 90 degree day to grab another full hay wagon to unload because that meant one less wagon my brother & I had to unload! My condolences to Sandy and family

“ I haven't seen Chuck in about 25 years but he has never been forgotten. I think of him and his family, their home on Chalmers, his 1967 Comet with the record player and just hanging out with the Finney crowd. RIP Chuck. Hugs and prayers for your family.

“ I have known Chuck since 1979 when I joined the company we both worked for. Chuck was a very talented and giving person. Over the years he gained a very good reputation as the best Zamboni mechanic in the country. There are so many memories I could put here but I will leave at that. Chuck will be missed by everyone who knew him. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Tremendous man that always made a way for a struggling trucking company owner (me) to keep the wheels turning by hauling those Zambonis all over the country. I remember how happy he, and the shop guys were to get one of my embroidered Tombstone Transport company Carhartt coats. He was part of some of my fondest memories.

“ I met Chuck and Sandy at the Silver Spur. As far as I know, everyone loved you two. My best memory is when Chuck did the joke about an armless man counting change and Sally wound up on the floor because she was laughing so hard! Love you ❤️!
