“ I grew up with Charles on California and he was my girlfriends brother. Charles saved my life one day as his sister and I were swimming in their pool. I still remember the sensation of Charles lifting me up out of the water choking and in a panic. I was so glad to remind him of that several years ago at a high school reunion. Nancy and my husband Mike both graduated from South Lake HS. My brother Ron and Charles have remained friends through the years.
My deepest sympathies to Nancy, their children and grandchildren.

“ Charlie was a wonderful man and dear neighbor for many many years. He was a big help to me when i needed it. When my husband was away being a firefighter. Charlie came to my rescue a few times.he was always making us laugh with his remarks. He loved fishing with his grandchildren. I can go on about many good things about charlie. . He will always be in our hearts. Rest in peace now my friend. Say hi to john for us. 💙
