“ Renee, Eathan and Zachary, Words can not describe the sadness I feel and felt when I heard of Chucks passing. I worked with Chuck for many years at St John, main, in the cath lab, he was a wonderful call partner and great co worker and truly a great partner in emergencies. We have kept in touch and I truly enjoyed his visits when he was in the hospital, we shared stories of our families and pictures too, my boys are 11 and 13, he spoke so highly of all of you and truly loved you all. Chuck could brighten a room with his smile and give you comfort with just a hug. He is with the angels now and be comforted knowing he is there for you any time you want to speak to him. My prayers are with you and God's Blessings to you as you heal.##imported-begin##Julie Holland-Alter##imported-end##

“ I pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will bring good out of this tragedy. For I know that He takes all things that the devil means for evil and turns them into good. I pray that the peace of Our Lord Jesus will comfort and guide you, the precious family of Charles, in the future and always. I knew Chuck from Group from the HPRP program, he always brought joy and encouragement to the group. He shared his struggles openly as he dealt with them, and was learning to mature in his recovery. He truly wanted to be free from any addictions, and even though this tragedy happened, I truly believe that his heart's cry was to have victory over this addiction. I thank Jesus that he looks at the heart rather than the outward actions. This note is from one who has walked in his shoes, and knows the joy of victory and the pain of failure.

Sincerely and with Prayers
