

Charlotte Ann Kurntz

January 30, 1945 - April 20, 2024

Charlotte A. Kurntz was born on January 30, 1945 in Windsor, Ontario, Canada. Charlotte passed away on April 20, 2024 at the Martha T. Berry Care Facility in Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

Charlotte was a woman of great faith and her love for the Catholic Church was evident in that she prayed the Rosary every day. Charlotte was called to her God while she was in the act of praying the Rosary and that probably is how she would have wanted it. Beyond her faith Charlotte's life revolved around her beloved daughter, her nieces and nephews and most of all her precious grand children and great grandchildren. She was also a bit of an outdoorswoman spending countless hours fishing with her husband Gary. Charlotte didn't really like touching fish and Gary didn't really like baiting the hooks with a worm so they made the perfect fishing duo. She also loved watching old TV game shows...the older and cornier the better as Charlotte firmly believed that a game show wasn't really a game show unless the host had a long thin microphone in his hand. When she wasn't hanging worms on hooks or watching Wink Martindale Charlotte could be found going to the casino and later when she settled into Pine Ridge and late Martha T. Berry a great game of Bingo where she would relish in her wins of a bag of chips or cookies, but let's not kid ourselves she often saved them for when the grandkids and great grandkids would visit.

Charlotte is the beloved wife of the late Gary. Loving mother of Candi Debrowsky. Very proud grandma of Brittany and David Debrowsky. Dear Mimi of Anthony, Delaney, and Joseph. Dearest sister of Debbie Brown and Robert (Robin) Wheeler. Dear aunt to James (Michele) Wheeler, Steven Brown, Shannon (Joe) Huizdos, William (Mandie) Wheeler, and Beth Brown.

Visitation Tuesday 2-8 PM at the Wasik Funeral Home, Inc. 49150 Schoenherr Rd. (n. of 22 Mile Rd.), Shelby Twp. Funeral service Wednesday 11 AM at the funeral home. Interment will follow the service at Resurrection Cemetery.

“ My Dear Mother. There is no words to express how empty I feel inside. I was supposed to be there when you took your last breath. I know you probably didn't want me there. You didn't want me to be upset, but I am upset because I wasn't out there I pick up the phone to call you and cant. I went to Martha T Berry and all your nurses and aides were heartbroken. Many were sad today. You touched their hearts in many ways. When I left I looked at your window and tears flowed as you were not there waiving. I know you were tired. You ensured so much and I know you were tired. You are free from pain now. And back together with dad. I have to learn to live without you now. You consumed my days and I would give anything to get that back. I know you will be with me along the rest of my life's journey. The babies are so sad. They loved you so much. I loved you more. Rest my dear mother you deserve it. I will see you one day. Love you ☐

“ My dear sweet Aunt Charlotte. Your loss is immense for us, but the memories abound. It is funny how you overlook things when you are making the memories, but once the memories are all that are left, they flood your heart and mind.

Thank you so very much for all the laughs, the card games, trips for ice cream, birthday cards, fishing with Uncle Gary, always having gum or mints, or tissue, all the candy, sweets, and snacks when we visited your house, for never missing a communion, confirmation, graduation party, birthday party, holidays, and all the impromptu get togethers we all used to have, for even making it to a ball game or two when I played Little League.

Your quiet grace, calmness, and dignity, in the shadow of our sometimes crazy and raucous clan was always a consistent reminder of who we were, where we came from, and what was expected of us.

You were loved beyond measure, and will be missed eternally. Rest easy in Heaven.
