“ A beautiful person went home to her God. Joan and I have many fond memories of the 9 years we were her neighbor. She was like a second Mom to our son. He spent many happy hours at her house playing with Wendy and Cindy. We had the honor of being present at her marriage to Jim and we shared some great times with them. She will be greatly missed and our condolences to the family

“ My husband Ron Welch and I always looked forward to seeing Cheryl at our family gatherings. She was so easy to talk to and had a fun sense of humor that we always enjoyed. It was always evident she loved Jim so much and all the other members of our family, most especially all of her grandkids. Rest in Peace Cheryl and know you will always be missed and our memories of our time with you.
