“ Cheryl was someone who made you laugh. I would go shopping at Meijer and run into her there. We'd talk for a while then continue our shopping, passing each other in the aisles. I would go to checkout and find multiple items that I did not put in my basket. Guess who did? It would make me laugh and there she would be smiling by the exit. She would also sometimes have me paged over the loud speaker. Heart of Gold, Contagious Smile and always full of fun. Rest in Peace Cheryl, you will be missed.

“ Life is full of surprises. Including the one where you become part of our family. We will always cherish the memories. One of our fondest memories is during Christmas Eve when you had a box full of elementary school wooden instruments and we all played instruments and sang Christmas carols. Cheryl you were always full of life and genuine. You are loved and missed.
