“ Jim, Brian, Anne, Steve -
It is difficult to express my condolences to you all for the "homegoing" of Cheryl. She was always such a joyful spirit, with not a complaint or criticism of anything or anyone. I am thankful that I knew and loved her for these past 37 years. In spite of missing her, I do rejoice that she is home now, happier than we all are. I regret that I could not be there today with you, but know that you all are in my prayers daily during this difficult time for you. I love you all.###imported-begin###Sharon###imported-end##

“ My Dearest Sister, I will always remember you. You were my little savior. You always kept me going and thinking positive thoughts. If it weren't for you, I would not be where I am today. I now have a positive outlook on things, and I thank you for that. I will always remember that and appreciate it for the rest of my life. May you rest in peace. I love you my big sister./ I have never met you but you always showed me consideration and love every time I talked to you. You are the one person I wish I could have met. Be safe in the hands you always loved. Vicki##imported-begin##Bruce##imported-end##

“ Mom, You added warmth to world you and never had a bad word to say about anyone and always said a prayer for everyone. Don't worry mom the girls will be fine and they will always remember you, I promise. We'll take care of Dad like you asked. I could not have asked for a better mother, thank you mom saving my life! Your loving son Brian /Mom thank you for all the advice you have given me over the years. You taught me not to sweat the small stuff, and I admire your courage and strength you showed through your years of pain and suffering without a complaint. We will never let Grace and Claire forget you. Love Anne###imported-begin##Brian###imported-end##

“ Aunt Cheryl,
I cannot begin to tell you how much you will be missed by our family. Although we were many miles apart, Lisa and I thought very highly of you. First, for your warmth, compassion, love, kindness and a deep devotion to your family and friends. Secondly, for marrying Uncle Jim. I, of all people know how hard it was to marry someone like him! He and I shared a common bond.. we were both blessed with loving, caring and beautiful wives (mother and grandmother) who put up with our shenanigans and our short comings and accepted us.
Once again, you WILL be missed. Please, rest with God and suffer no more.###imported-begin##Paul C. and Lisa McCrum###imported-end##
