

Christian Michael Sam

May 1, 1970 - June 17, 2025

Christian Michael Sam, of Roseville, passed away Tuesday, June 17, 2025, at the age of 55. He was born May 1, 1970 in Warren, Michigan. Beloved husband of Joy. Loving father of Tia, Zamira, Timon, and Zion. Proud grandfather of Naomi, Sterling Jr., and Eliana. Cherished son of Mark and Judith Sam. Dearest brother of Nicole Sam and Lauri Brockmiller. Dear uncle of Jacob, Lauren, Maria, Lachlan, and Aili. Also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, family, and friends.

Christian was an amazing father, devoted husband, and skilled Production Artist; he was a kind, loving, and generous man. He cherished time spent with his family; whether it was getting together for the holidays, cookouts, or summer parties, enjoying the company of his loved ones always brought joy to his heart. In his free time, he treasured spending time with his children and enjoying an active lifestyle that included fishing, biking, and camping. Christian was also the longtime owner of Archangel Steel, a company he founded over 30 years ago. He was a talented metalworker who crafted swords by hand. God blessed Christian with the hard-working, steady hands, that allowed him to share his gifts with the world. Though his passing brings great sorrow to all who had the privilege to know Christian, the memories and love that we share with him will continue to live on forever in our hearts.

Visitation Monday, June 23, 2025, from 4-6 p.m. at Cornerstone Baptist “ Christian's passing hardly seems real and the sorrow I feel for his loss, for his family, his friends...all those who loved him, is deep.

I keep replaying our talks in my head and one of my favorite things to remember is the way he would fake scowl at me when I asked him difficult questions, but then, when I'd call him out "Are you scowling at me?", he'd get a big grin on his face.

I'll miss him so much! I know we all will.

I pray for strength, peace, comfort, and love to envelope Joy, Christian's children, his parents, and all who are grieving his loss.

“ I didn't know Christian well until probably February. We attend the same church; He is my brother in Christ, his wife Joy, my sister in Christ. He was such a devoted husband, father, & son, and spoke of his love for Jesus during every encounter I ever had with him. Now, he has no more cancer, no more pain, no more sadness, no more tears, and no more fear. He has crossed the finish line of his race, and he's with his Savior now. My prayers are that everyone who loved him finds comfort in knowing that. Also my prayers are that those who knew Christian, but don't yet know the Savior he served - that Christian's death will cause them to ponder eternity and the One who paid the ultimate price to make salvation and eternity in heaven with Christ possible, and insodoing, will surrender their lives to Jesus Christ just like Christian did.

“ It break my heart that I'm unable to attend Chris's memorial. I send my love and prayers to all of my family. I grew up always calling him BIG Chris and I was little Chris. I always looked up to big Chris. I admired his strength and his skill as a martial artist. I think back to the times we shared together fishing at grandma and grandpa's cottage, camping at lake neppessing or visiting him at his blacksmith stand at the renaissance festival. The world lost a great guy, but I know he's going to a better place. Rest easy Cuz.
