

Christian S. "Clobber" LaFave

March 1, 1977 - October 16, 2006

Christian S. "Clobber" LaFave

Passed away Monday; October 16, 2006 at his residence in Detroit at the age of 29. He was born March 1, 1977 in Warren, Michigan. He was a proud and devoted member of the Vigilante's M/C Detroit. "Clobber's" life was devoted to his family and Motor Cycle Club and his passion for motorcycles. The lives of many aunts, uncles and cousins were touched by Christian's love and his huge heart. As a brother in the Detroit Vigilante Motorcycle Club "Clobber" shared the colors with a large extended family.

Beloved son of Denise L. (Norbert) Eberlein and Albert L. (Evon) LaFave, Sr. Dear brother of Albert L. (Jenn) LaFave II, SSgt. Jacob S. (Allison) LaFave, Marcel (Laura) Eberlein, Susan Eberlein, Michelle Spaulding, Marcia O'Bryan and Melissa Honer. His hugs and laughter will be missed by his nephews and nieces Mathew Jones, Courtney Eberlein, Albert L. LaFave III and his godson Conner LaFave, Hannah O'Bryan, Brandon O'Bryan and Justin O'Bryan.

“ Hey baby, just thinking about you. This time of year always reminds me of you. I just wanted to say thank you! You made me realize so much about life. With out you I dont think I would ever be where iam at today. I have 4 beatiful babies who have a loving mother and I cant help but think you had alot to do with that.You made me grow into a wonderful woman. And you still loved me at my worst. I forever wil take those words you said to me and always step forward to be the woman I was meant to be. I will always remember that is it was not for you I could have never acomplished so much! I love you and I will see you on the other side love Laura##imported-

“ To be a good benign being is to be enduring a philanthropic of openness to the mankind, an cleverness to trust aleatory things beyond your own control, that can take you to be shattered in very extreme circumstances pro which you were not to blame. That says something remarkably outstanding thither the fettle of the righteous life: that it is based on a corporation in the fitful and on a willingness to be exposed; it's based on being more like a plant than like a prize, something somewhat fragile, but whose mere particular handsomeness is inseparable from that fragility.##imported-begin##Invicta Automatic Pro##imported-end##

“ To Fetch, Allison, Conner and the rest of the Lafave family. Words cannot express how I feel about the loss for your family. Unfortunately I never got the chance to know or to ride with Clobber, but I can tell from everything that has been written here that he was an awesome person, and brother. One day my friend we will meet and ride in the skys of heaven. Until then ride free. Fetch my brother if yall need ANYTHING you know all you have to do is say it and I will be there. See yall when you return. Scrappy###imported-begin##Rob (Scrappy), Wendi, and kids###imported-end##

“ *Jacob "Fetch" and Family, You are all in our thoughts daily. Although we did not know "Clobber" personally we did know him through the wonderful stories told by Fetch. We would have loved to ride on the great German roads with him, now oneday we will get a chance to ride the great highways of the heavens with him. Have a great ride Clobber. Fetch and Allison, we will be here for you when you return to Germany. Let us know if you need anything until then. “ My darling, beloved son, you either started the conversation or ended it with "Hi, da mumma" "remember, you'll always be my best and closest friend". It's hard to comprehend your absence. Just thinking that in 2 weeks you would have been in one of the places you loved the most, Colorado having Thanksgiving with us and traveling with us to different parts of Colorado and Arizona. While we are all cleaning out your home that you enjoyed so much and packing up your things, we kiss and hug most of them. We anticipate you walking down the steps or pulling up the drive on your chopper. There is such a void for all of us and will be for a long time. I'm grateful for the memories and will cherish them even more than before. Dad, Susan and I have a big hole in our hearts, along with your buddies, Bert, Jacob, Jenn, Allison, Mathew, Conner and Albert, along with the little princess, Courtney, Marcel and Laura.

The guys in the club have been fantastic and you would have loved the funeral, procession and final resting place. They did you proud as you have always done them. They are grieving, Bam, Spider, Rotten Ray, Fish, JT, Chuck, Sean, and a ton of others. You were one awesome man, son, brother, uncle, and friend. We still hear your voice & feel your love.

I love you Chris equal equal forever.

Lovingly to our Clobbersaurus

“ You provided us with the grounding we needed in life. You asked for nothing - you gave everything. Christian, you defined the meaning of family, love, charity, unselfishness - with a lot of humor and spirit thrown in for good measure. I will miss you, honey. I hope you are enjoying Grandma's meatballs - and please give Meghan a hug from her Grandma. I love you, Aunt Annette##imported-begin##Annette Lynch##imported-end##

“ Clobber...

My friend, my younger brother, a good man in a bad world... Robin.

Whenever you called me, or I called you, you would always say "Batman... this is Robin..." You knew how much I loved you brother, and I know how much you cared.

You gave more than you had and still felt you weren't giving enough. I never met a better person.

Since the run to houghton lake when you first came aboard, and you heard my ol' lady called "Bad Andi" you always called her that because she is so good. We love you.

Ride on forever brother. I miss you so much already. You would have been proud of your turnout!

With these tears on my face and these scars on my soul I write these words for all to know...

*Here come the Vigilante's, Brother's flyin' side by side ridin' rollin' thunder, chromed lightin' flashing through the night - Pullin' outta Detroit for the world to see, wearin' black leather vest with a silver "V"-
Not out lookin' for trouble, but ain't about to run,
if they gotta get busy, they get the job done-Gotta get a move on before I start to rust, gonna ride that highway gonna kick me up some dust,
'cause I've got wheels,*

*wheels on my soul,
and I'm gonna keep on rollin' rollin' forever , but never alone Might do a little smokin', might drink some beer and wine, Love them pretty women,
makes life seem alright,
and I've got wheels,
wheels on my soul,
and I'm gonna keep on rollin'
rollin' forever , but never alone
Here come the Vigilante's,
Brother's flyin' side by side, escorting a fallen brother, through his final ride,
Now, as we lay you down to rest, We bow our heads and reminisce, there's a tear and a smile, and a shudder or two,
and a shout goes out saying "CLOBBER" from the crowd hurting, and missing you....

“ Christian,
as we heard, that god took you home that early and so fast, we remembered the time when you were born ... and we got the answer:

*Als du geboren wurdest,regnete es.
Doch es war kein Regen, es war der Himmel, der weinte, weil er seinen schönsten Stern verloren hatte.*

“ My deepest thoughts go out to the LaFave family. I had the wonderful opportunity to spend a part of my life knowing Bert, Chris, Jacob and their father and i can't even imagine what this loss must feel to them, and the rest of his family. Chris will be missed greatly. It's a shame that a man with such a big heart had to leave so early.##imported-begin##Bobby Bouchard##imported-end##

“ We respectfully submit our sincere condolences to the LaFave family on the loss of Chris. We fondly remember Chris and his Dad, Bert, coming to Conner's Christening ceremony in Jacksonville, Arkansas while Jacob was stationed at Little Rock Air Force Base and how cool Chris looked, especially for a christening in a Catholic Church. We will miss him and it is sad little Conner won't get to know his godfather and how much fun he would have had with him. God love all of you and take care of you in your grief and loss. We will be sending a gift of money as a memorial in honor of Chris to his Vigilantes M/C. I think Chris would appreciate that gesture.
