“ *What a wonderful woman! I had the honor to call you mom for 45 years. No matter what it was you have always been there not only as a mother, a wife and the best grandmother ever he would bend over backwards to make people happy as you always taught me to do and always help others. I am at a loss without you, but I know that you are with dad and Mallory Watch over all of us.
Love, your daughter Jennifer an grandson Matthew*

“ Chris you were such a wonderful caring and loving friend. I will miss our talks over the the fence about every day life but mostly about how much you missed Ken and how much I missed Dick. We shed many a tear together and were also great comforters for one another. I keep looking at your house and thinking what am I going to do without you there. I love you as a friend and look forward to seeing you someday in the glory of our Savior. God is good! May Gods peace be with all of your family and especially your dear sweet mom who you cherished and adored. Love Faith Briggs

“ So hard to write my memories of my sister Chris without crying with such sorrow knowing she's gone. I miss her so much! Chris was so loving, caring and compassionate. I knew no one who worked harder than her. She gave so much of her time, love and effort for anyone in need with an open heart. She was a great cook. Chris was always dependable and would drop everything to assist you. She helped me get through so many of my struggles in life and she shared her own challenges and sorrows openly. I learned so much from her. I grew stronger having such a great sister. I'm so blessed to have been her brother.

You will be missed for so many reasons! You were so fond of your husband Ken and now you will be with him. When you mentioned his name yours eyes twinkled. You were a proud and loving mother and grandmother. When you spoke of your family you bubbled. You were a kind and lovely cousin and friend. I'm happy I was able to tell you in person that sentiment. You were a cherished daughter and your mother will miss you most as only a mother can. Rest in peace my lovely Christine and we will see you on the other side 🍷💕🙏

Chris was a summer friend for as long as I can remember at Cherry Beach. We had so much fun growing up in such a wonderful place. 5 of us Cherry Beach Girls had lunch when we all turned 70 - Judy Cyrowski Gleason, Debbie Damm Schuster, Patty Collins Sullivan, me and Chris. We planned to do it again when we all turned 75. Chris will be greatly missed.

PS

Chris (Chrissy) was a Cherry Beach summer friend. We initially rented from the Robarge's and then my parents purchased the Beach View cottage. My mom, my sister Joan, my brother Michael and myself moved to the cottage at the end of the school year and stayed until Labor Day. Chrissy remarked on her senior picture that she exchanged with me that I was the only friend that would be up by 9:00. Jane and Judy liked to sleep in. I loved that we were able to get together at Cherry Beach two years ago, giving us time to reminisce especially with the scrapbook that Jane brought. I loved walking the grounds, seeing how much my cottage had changed and walking on the "big dock". Mrs. Kossack was a wonderful hostess along with Chris. Chris will be missed.
