“ Even though she's gone
her memory still remains in our hearts.
Her smile and face will never fade.
We think of her as we go on each day.
The good times we remember and the days spent together
will be in our memories forever.
So when you start to get down
and you really want to cry
just think of the fun times
and don't wonder why.
Just leave it at that
and know she's better now.
She's in a better place..
So Christine we love you
and we miss you so much
but we know you're much happier.
So watch over us and make sure we're okay
and we will see you again someday.

“ One of the truest best friends to me, but I know she made us all feel that way! I will never forget what you are to me and how you have changed my life. A piece of my heart will leave earth today with you. But your presense and my memories of "US" will fill that void and I will smile knowing that I had the pleasure to know you ad your dearest. My forever love for you.

“ So sad to read this. She was such a dear friend when we were just kids in middle school. I pray for comfort for the whole family and all her close friends. Her Facebook posts at the end were SO positive for a woman who was suffering. Such a light in a dark time. God Bless <3
