“ Mrs. Michaels was one of those "cool Moms". What a sweet, friendly, funny lady. I can certainly see her legacy when I think of her family, some of the nicest, most colorful people I know. She'll be missed by so many and there will never be another like her. My sympathy to Mr. Michaels, all their children and extended family. The loss of a Mom is heartbreak like no other. Rest now, Mrs. Michaels. Loving hands here had to let you go to loving hands in heaven.

“ Aunt Chris was the most beautiful and loving Auntie to all of us and especially me since I was her Godchild. Aunt Chris always remembered my birthday and Christmas every year when I was growing up. She always gave me a personal gift engraved. I still have a necklace with my initials on it. But every year there was one special present. Pencils with my name on it, a sweater with my initials, books, stationary, etc. I will always remember because I would get so excited to see what special gift her and Uncle Dick had for me. Aunt Chris and Uncle Dick until this day are the only ones who refer to me as Jane Mary, always including my middle name. I will miss her saying my name and knowing I was special to her! I will always keep you in my heart and prayers! I love you lots! Glam,
Jane Mary

“ Mrs. M you were like a second mother to me. You helped me through some truly rough journeys in my life after my mom was gone. I will remember you always and how your face lit up when you smiled. You had some wonderful stories to tell and I loved all the times we spent together. Love you lots.
