“ Some of my best childhood memories are the ones spent at the Silisavage's house and of course Mrs Silisavage sitting with us at the kitchen table just talking. Later looking back I now know she was finding out what we were up to and what kind of trouble was around the corner, maybe point us in another direction for the day. Lol Not a time a time I stopped by did she not ask how my parents and family were doing, and truly cared to hear the answer. A loving and caring heart that will be missed.

“ Chris was a very special friend whom I had the pleasure of knowing for many years. We became very close in the last few years when I moved back to this side of town. She was a self sacrificial person who always put her family first. She had a strong devotion to them. Chris I will treasure our time together as well as all the fond memories. Rip my dear friend until we meet again.
