

Christine A. Wiley (Kujawski-LaGore)

October 29, 1946 - January 2, 2025

Christine A. Wiley (Kujawski-LaGore), of Eastpointe, passed away on Thursday, January 2, 2025 at the age of 78. She was born October 29, 1946 in Detroit, Michigan to Frank and Irene (nee Zalewski) Kujawski.

Christine was a proud member of the Eastpointe Lions Club. She is a former Religious Education Coordinator and CCD Special Education Teacher at St. Raymond Catholic Church and also at St. David Catholic Church both in Detroit.

Christine loved life! She loved adventure! She loved to travel and would always look forward to her next vacation or outing.

Christine had a smile that would light up the entire room. Her personality matched her smile. She was often given the responsibility of walking into a room or gathering to put a smile on everyone's face and "break the ice" before the rest of those with her walked in. Her kind spirit and warming demeanor made you instantly feel comfortable and that you were a longtime friend. Her gentle presence will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Christine is survived by her beloved husband of 30 years, Michael Wiley. Loving mom of Jon and Tony LaGore. Grandmother of Rebecca and Nichole LaGore. Beautiful sister of Annmarie Kujawski, Tom Kujawski and Theresa

(the late John) Badura. Dear aunt of Brittany Kujawski, Grace Warne and Jason Badura. She is also the beloved Mumma of her furbabies, Chester and Bailey.

Memorial Visitation for Christine will take place on Saturday, January 11th beginning at 10 a.m. and concluding with a Memorial Service at 12 noon at the Wasik Funeral Home, Inc., 11470 Thirteen Mile Road (west of Hoover) Warren.

“ I certainly recognized your Mom’ s pretty face in the picture , Jon & Tony....I offer my sympathies towards you two. Tony Lahore...I smile when I remember you and Jon in those days at St. David. You were the best, Tony LaGore, and you made that 7th grade the best with Jerry, Darrin and all the terrific girls in our class!!
