“ I'm very sorry for your loss. It is my prayer that your pain will be replaced by happiness from memories of your mom/grandma and comfort in knowing that one day, you will be reunited in God's Heavenly Kingdom to bask together in His Amazing Grace for all of eternity.

I want to apologize that I could not deliver this message in person but I am heading out of town on business.

*God bless,

“ We just wanted to let you know how deeply sorry we are for your loss. I've known Chris since seventh grade when Shelly and I were in cheerleading. She has always treated me as one of her own. And growing up I always thought of her as a second mom. She will be in our hearts forever.##imported-begin##Beth Walker##imported-end##
