“ You were there for me, you protected me, and most of all, you loved me. There will not be a day that goes by that I won't think of you. You were one of the three greatest gifts I have ever received from our parents. I am so grateful you were my brother. I love you bro. See you on the other side. Tisha

“ Chris was such a committed, compassionate and considerate man. I am fortunate to have been Blessed by his friendship. Although gone from this world far too soon, I believe that he is still watching over those for whom he cared so deeply. My condolences and prayers go out to the entire Kocienda family as they navigate this great loss. With utmost respect, gratitude and love Peter Spencer-Tichik

“ You were a kind gentle soul who had wisdom beyond your years. I remember the profound insight you had at my Moms funeral and your caring words to me that helped get me through the day. You understood what few others could. I enjoyed all your writings and comics. You always instinctively seem to know the things that were most important in life - family, friends, and those you shared your life with. You made the world a better place for all those who got to know you. You will be sadly missed by all who knew you. Love, Aunt Denise

“ Christopher,

*I love you son
I hold you and your happiness within my heart each and everyday
I am so proud of you and thankful to the years that have been given to me
to be thankful for.
If I were given a chance to be anything I wanted to become,
There is nothing I would rather be... than your parent.
And there is no one I would rather have...as my son.
(yeah you know I copied this from the card in your wallet)*

*To have you in my life was always having an angel by my side
HUGS and LOVE...Mom*

“ I got to know Chris in the last few months. If there is one word to describe him, it would be selfless!! Chris showed this with his actions. If he could help someone, he would drop what he was doing to help them. I did not think last Monday would be the last day I would see him. Will definitely miss you brother!!

“ Chris and I went to St. Joan of Arc together. I have known him for a very long time. He participated in my epilepsy walks for the past 2 years and was going to participate this year. I recently met up with Chris early last month when he helped me bring home my new bbq from Lowes. Chris was always there offering a helping hand and/or support when needed. He will be missed!!!!

“ Koci was "my brain" as I nicknamed him. I've known him since he started at Combine, we've laughed and worked out many problems together. Smart, friendly, kind, compassionate and so much more. As we go on with our work schedules, sadness fills the faces and tears are seen everywhere here; He made such an impact on the lives of all those here. He will be greatly missed!!!

As Chris's father, I can only express the pure joy I have felt in the 40 years of knowing him. Watching him grow into a loving, caring adult who just gave and gave, and continued to love all he touched. His genius could be seen in his daily "Koci by Koci" cartoons. I learned so much from him, his poetry and his writing....I am in awe by it all. I'm sure he's looking down on all of us, alongside his creator, finally understanding what it's all about. Christopher, I will always love you and miss you. Love, Dad “ Chris, you were an unselfish, caring and loyal friend. You helped me through some pretty rough times and I hope that you are finally happy and at peace. I hope the world realizes who we have lost...a beautiful soul who was a gifted writer. A polite and genuine man that thought of others before yourself. A truly honest and sincere friend. You will be missed, more than you could ever know. I've shed a lot of tears for you today, my friend. Mostly because I wish I could have told you these things in person; but also because you made this world a better place by your countless acts of kindness, your humor, wit, smile and laugh. I can't help but laugh through my tears at the thought of you reading this and rolling your eyes at me for all my grammatical mistakes.

My condolences to the Kocienda family.

I remember years ago when we were invited to the Kocienda household and there sat Christopher in his diaper quietly playing with~~no, not playing with, but studying~~ a toy while in his bouncy chair. Yes, he was a quiet baby because even back then, he was a deep thinker. Moving ahead 40 years he became a thoughtful man, an intelligent man who was very polite and had a great many interests and a wonderful sense of humor. You cannot say enough good things about him. He left behind a place that cannot be filled and that is high tribute indeed. He is our lost treasure that will be sorely missed.

Tish & Bob,

My heart aches for you and your family. Though I met Christopher just twice, he made an impression because of his warmth and demeanor. It does not surprise me he was a talented artist/cartoonist and had a great sense of humor. I know how difficult it is to lose someone suddenly. And, I can't get over how Christopher looks just like you-- those eyes and that grin!
