Christopher John O'Regan, 80, of New Baltimore, Michigan, passed away peacefully on August 29, 2025. Born in London, England, on June 13, 1945, he was the son of Ronald F. and Norah O'Regan. Christopher lived a life defined by courage, devotion, and love for his family.

A proud U.S. Army veteran, Chris honorably served his country during the Vietnam War. Following his military service, he became the co-owner of Barcoa Manufacturing, where he built a successful career and a reputation for integrity and hard work.

Chris was a life member of VFW Post 7573 in New Baltimore, Michigan, where he proudly served as a member of the color guard and as vice commander. He was also a member of Moose Lodge 2118 of Anna Maria Island, the Mount Clemens Eagles 1269, and the Elks Lodge Number 1511 in Bradenton, Florida. His dedication to these organizations reflected his commitment to service, camaraderie, and community.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Judy O'Regan (Mardlin). Together they shared 58 blessed years of marriage, filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories. He was a devoted father to Christopher (Amanda) O'Regan, Hilary (Gary) Speshock, and Melanie (Brandon) King. His legacy continues through his adored grandchildren: Walter (Blaina), Olivia (Andrew), Maxwell (Caitlyn), Joshua, Raegan, Grant, Andrew, Harper, and Elizabeth. Loving brother of Ginger (Mike) Bereza and many beloved nieces and nephews. His love, guidance, and humor will forever live on in their hearts.

He was predeceased by his parents and his sister, Sonja Buchholtz.

Chris was a loving, generous, and family-oriented man who worked tirelessly to provide for his family. His warmth, kindness, and ability to make others feel valued left an indelible mark on all who knew him. He found joy in reading, sudoku puzzles, golfing, fishing, and spending time with family and friends both in Michigan and in Florida. Above all, his greatest love was his family.

He was deeply loved by all who knew him and his presence will be profoundly missed.
