“ Sorry to learn of Chris' passing. Big as an ox and gentle as a lamb, Chris was one of the best people I ever met. Always helpful, knowledgeable, smiling, and caring. He was an inspiration to all. God bless Chris Poisson and his family. I'm going to miss you big guy!

“ Chris is my husband. He is very loved and missed. I know what an awesome man he was first hand. He would always be available to help out when anybody needed him. He was such a caring person. I don't know how I got so lucky to be loved so much by him, I just am glad he chose me. Our time together was not long enough and I think about him all day everyday, hoping that he knows how special he is to me. I love you Chris with all my heart and you made my life so happy. Till I can be with you again I will think of you daily and remember all our times together. Thank you for our life... I love you so...

“ This just made me sick to my stomach when I read about Chris’s passing on Facebook. I have not seen Chris since high school but we shared letters when he was in the service. In my scrapbook I have so many notes from Chris. He was so kind to me he made this girl who felt like an ugly duckling feel special with his kindness. It was so good to see him on Facebook seeming to greatly enjoy his life and his family. I will be praying for your family not just now but for years to come as I do for others especially around the holidays and times when the memories may be hurt more hurtful than joyful. Praying for God’s peace and grace to strengthen you at this time.

“ I never met Chris, but heard all about him through my friendship with his sister, Cheryl. Like so many of you, prayed for a miracle. I can only hope that his memory becomes a blessing, and that his family leans on each other as they say goodbye. May God hold him in the Palm of His Hand...and God Bless everyone who loved him. Rest in Peace, Chris...hope your dad is waiting for you to welcome you Home. Sara and Tom Baluk, Naples, FL.
