“ Aunt Clara had a special way with her smile and words. When I would see her she always asked how I was and my family. I knew it was genuine, I could see it In her eyes. Her words were spoken from the heart with compassion. She and uncle Archie are my role models..... They had tremendous respect for each other. Although I didn't see them often, when I did, I loved to be near them; joking, laughing, telling little stories and funny secrets. I've learned some great qualities from aunt Clara ones that will forever remain. Aunt Clara will be missed by so many. Her strong faith will carry her into uncle Archie's arms and be reunited with family and friends.

“ Annie, I remember the visiting Sundays that we shared with both sets of our parents during our time at Oxford. That's when I first got to know them. Do you remember? Your mom was very loving and most giving of herself all her life. Like mother like daughter! You were very fortunate to have her.. I am shedding tears right now for all we have both lost in our lives. Glad you are my friend-for life!!

Clara was the sweetest, kindest woman in the world. She prayed for me and my children everyday. I will always cherish every memory of her. We shared so many laughs. I loved listening to her stories. Particularly those of being a hairdresser so many years ago. Clara was an amazing wife, mother, friend. I could go on and on. Each of us should be more like her. I made her pretty for many years and will miss her forever.

*Love,
Carrie*
