“ Jeff, you and Darrell are in my thoughts.

When I was a kid, one of my favorite places to be was in the Harrison household. Whenever Claude was around he was always smiling and laughing. I strongly remember Claude taking a whole group of kids fishing, I think about that now and wonder what in the world was he thinking!

After they moved to Sterling Heights, I was invited to go with the Harrison's to Cedar Point. On the way, we drove through the African Lion Safari. A giraffe stuck its head in the car window and ate doughnuts right out of the box.

There was always a box of doughnuts.

Claude was always good to me. That is one of the simplest things in life to be, good to kids. Claude was.....you don't forget.
