“ Hi! My name is Maria. You don't know me and I never got a chance to meet Mr.Mercer, but while glancing thru the death notices in the Detroit News, I noticed that you lost your dear loved one. I have also lost dear friends and family members to death but have found comfort in a few scriptures that offer hope for the future. A well-known prophet, Isaiah, was inspired to write by God some words of comfort. Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will “actually swallow up death forever” and he will “wipe the tears from all faces”. Hosea 13:14 promises that God will redeem our loved ones from death. This will all happen soon in the near future. I hope you have found comfort in these scriptures. If you'd like more information as to how we can be a part of this in the future, please feel free to e-mail me at mariawindom@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you, but if not, know that my prayers are with you.

Your neighbor,

Maria###imported-begin##maria##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about Clyde, he touched a lot of people in a lot of way's even he never knew. I grew up calling him "Uncle Clyde", only to find out later he wasn't really my uncle, he just treated me like he was. I will always remember his laugh, and his always positive attitude, even when it seemed nothing was going right. He even used to let Danny and I drive his pick-up around the construction site's when we could barely reach the pedals. What a great uncle! I hope your pain is lessened by the knowledge that Clyde is now free of the pain and struggles he had known for so long. He was a good man, I'm sure there's special place in heaven for him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
