“ All three of us were so saddened to hear of Connie's passing. She was incredible - and so loved her family. We will never forget going with you to Stratford, Cedar Pointe, her wonderful Halloween dinners, and her willingness to have Greg over all of the time! Connie did a phenomenal job - as a wife, mother, grandmother - and in her classroom! So very sorry for your loss! Connie was truly beautiful - inside and out!!!!

“ *Dear Jim and Family,
Words cannot express how saddened I am with this news. My memories are filled with so many happy times which included trips to Stratford, football games in East Lansing and many Saturday night dinners! My heart is with you during this time. I will miss my friend, but know she is smiling down on us!*
