“Dad, I carry you in my heart everyday. You were the greatest positive influence in my life. Miss you and love you always. So many times when thinking of our fun times at work, on vacation, travelling, having a drink, or just sitting by the BBQ on a Sunday, a smile, a laugh, a joyful tear comes over me!!! I remember so many of your funny, wise jokes, your tenacity for humor, your peaceful spirit, and that warm heartfelt smile. So I had to post these pics to share. We just got off work, and we're side by side at a red light northbound on Dequindre. One of our mutual pranks was to take surprise pics with our old Polaroids and this is one I snapped of you before light turned green!!! Love you forever my Dear, Kind Dad. Laura

“ I am Conrad Wilamowski's 2nd daughter. His first was my older sister, Mary Wilamowski, who died about 1957 and is buried at a Detroit Cemetery which I visited about 2006 or 2007, and saw my sweet sister Mary's tombstone. I felt an immediate connection and fell to my knees, crying like a baby. It was overwhelming to be touching the marker of where my older sister was laid to rest. I was overcome with emotion, and thought of my parents, Conrad and Dorothea Wilamowski, and how very hard it must have been for them to bury their first child. It was about 1957 or so and society didn't talk of this. But here I am, 2020, in a very different time. There is no shame. My parents suffered a great loss, the worst loss, and buried that loss. I only know about my sister Mary from great relatives like Aunts Dolores Goralski, Phyllis Zuchmanski, Shirley Milatz, and dear cousin Regi Onyx, who all, plus others, told me of my sister Mary and where she's buried. Now I know my dear Dad Conrad is at peace and with his daughter Mary. RIP DAD AND MARY. LOVE U BOTH, LAURA WILAMOWSKI
