

Constance D. Morelli

January 27, 1932 - April 14, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the peaceful passing of Constance D. Morelli, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, on Tuesday, April 14, 2026, at the age of 94.

Constance was born on a snowy Wednesday, January 27, 1932, in Detroit, Michigan, to her loving parents, the late John and Sophia (Doppke) Krajewski. She carried the values and love imparted by her parents throughout her life, remaining ever attached to her roots in Detroit.

She was the devoted mother of Diane (Anthony) Centofanti and is predeceased by her beloved sons, James and John Heike. Her legacy blossoms through her grandchildren: Christopher Heike, Michelle Heike, Sarah (Jason) Heuchert, Jessica Heike, Joshua (Lizzie) Heike, Katelyn Centofanti, Joseph Centofanti, and Emily Centofanti. Constance's heart and love extended further to her great-grandchildren, eight in number, all of whom brought immense joy to her later years.

Her relationships with her siblings were deeply important to her. Constance cherished her sister Marilyn (the late Myron) Sanderson and maintained a special bond with her sister-in-law Pat (the late Edward) Krajewski.

Professionally, Constance dedicated many years as a Retail Clerk with Sears, displaying dedication and commitment, cherished by colleagues and customers alike, until her retirement. Her work ethic and caring nature left a lasting impression on all who encountered her in her professional life.

Constance's life was a testament to kindness, love, and resilience. Her spirit, kindness, and humor will be dearly missed, but her legacy will live on through her family and the countless lives she touched.

Her arrangements have been compassionately entrusted to the Wasik Funeral Home-New Baltimore.

In loving memory of Constance D. Morelli, a bright, gentle soul who enriched the lives of many and whose spirit will continue to guide and inspire her family for generations to come. She leaves behind a world better for having known her.
