“ I ran into Cori a few weeks ago at LA fitness and I am glad I did because I have not seen him for many years. We talked for a while and I am glad that I had that opportunity. Myself and Cori started at Chrysler over 20 years ago together and both of us became skilled trades. I ended up going to a different plant so that is why I did not see him for a while but the Lord works in many ways and we did cross paths before he went on his next mission. My heart aches for his family but please let them know that the UAW family is here if they need any support.

Godspeed,

“ I just wanted to let the family know how sorry we are for their loss. Cori and I are the same age and it really hits home how fast things like this can happen. Cori played on our softball team in Ida for 2-3 years back in the late 90's. Cori was always bringing fresh vegetables to the cook outs afterwards and we always had a good time. I lost touch with him after I moved to KY back in 2001, but thought of him often. He was definately one of the good guys and will be sadly missed.

“Dear Nocella Family,

I am truly sorry for your loss and will pray for your family. Reading your husband's obituary reminds me of what my mother and four siblings went through when my father passed away over 40 years ago. May you find comfort, hope and strength to endure from Jesus words at John 11:25 promising a future 'resurrection to life'. For further comfort and encouragement, please visit the website: www.jw.org. Please take care.

“ Our prayers and deepest heartfelt sympathy to the Nocella family. Cori you were truly one of a kind. When you arrived at work everyone knew that you were there. Thank you for sharing all of your spicy foods and sauces with us. You are the one who made it possible for us to get together and for that you will always be remembered and forever in our hearts. We will miss you greeting us in the morning with a story or with what you ate last night. May God bless you and we pray that you are enjoying the promise of eternal life. Love Sandy and Shane
