“ My dear sister was an amazing woman. Above all she took the most pride in being an outstanding mother. I am so thankful and proud that she was my sister. She was brave, courageous, compassionate, loving, giving and a terrific friend. She was always there for me with a hug, a smile or some words to help. She always had my back and i miss her terribly. But...I do know that she is watching over me and by my side, as well as my mother. I had a dream of her last night and I grabbed her hand and held it to my cheek as I told her that I loved her. It was amazing.....it will be hard without my sister but I'm at peace because she isn't suffering anymore. I love you my big sis..... Xoxo.....see you again.....but not quite in a minute.....lol...you n mom are stirrin up some joy in our lives (:

“ I still cannot wrap my head around this loss. It seems like just yesterday I was on the phone with Correen and she was full of optimism about what was ahead for her. She will always have a special place in my heart. Truly another angel has gone home. I will miss you my friend and share condolences with others that will feel your loss.

“ I am at a loss for words. I met Correen way back in Jr. High, and I have many wonderful memories of her...especially her smile. It was wonderful to be reunited with her on facebook, and now I look forward to being once again united with her in paradise. To all her family and friends, my prayers. She is peacefully asleep now, waiting for her day to be with all of us once again. God bless.

“ *To the family of Correen,
Sorry to read about your loss. Its sad to see someone loved by so many have to pass so soon. Despite the pain take comfort in the good times. And the hope of seeing her again in a world free of sickness, pain and death. (Revelation 21:3,4)*

“ To Correen's family and friends, I am so overwhelmed with emotions, I had known Correen in Jr. High and High School, but reconnected with her since our 30th reunion, and Facebook, we had several long conversations over the last couple years and I know how hard it was for her losing her mom. Correen, was so beautiful inside and out and loved her children so much, I know she is at peace now and I hope and pray for her children and family. I will miss her beautiful soul, but know she is with her mother now. Such a terrible loss at such a young age and beautiful soul has left us all. I will keep her and her family in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless you Correen

“ To the Szmiot family: I can't help but feel how fruitless any words of mine could be to attempt to beguile you from a loss so overwhelming. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you with only the cherished memories of her time here with us.

Sincerely,

Andy Ruzzin
