what can I say...I just can't believe all the memories & fun times we shared whether it was at the house or just going to concerts or just going up North or just riding around...we always seem to make each other laugh about the silliest things....I just can't believe that you had to leave this early & really gonna miss all the fun times but, they will remain a memory in my mind till the end comes for me...but, that won't stop me from thinking of the fun times I will remind you of them when we see each other again...

“ To the Cheslock family, So very sorry to hear of Cindi's passing. I am from the "old" neighborhood and can recall many fun times Cindi and I had. May God grant peace and comfort to your hearts knowing Cindi is in the arms of Jesus.
Peace always,

“ On behalf of the family may these words be of comfort stated at John 5:28, 29 where it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (29) and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

There's a promise God has given us of a resurrection of our loved ones. Christ Jesus will carry out this action. So please be comforted by God's word. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) I truly hope everyone will be okay. Again I'm so sorry for your lost.

“ My sympathies for the Cheslock Family. In your memories she will still live. To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

“ Dear Cheslock family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As your hearts are full of grief and pain, I pray that your family will draw comfort from the promise from God found in John 5:28, 29. Here we are assured that soon our loved ones will be resurrected back to life. May God prove to be your true source for strength and hope during this most difficult time.
